EXPERTISE

Chris brings over 38 years of foodservice industry experience to Reitano Design Group. He has a diversified background as a designer, a kitchen equipment contractor, and as an owner/operator in the restaurant market.

His unique gifts in spatial design and his academic training in architecture combine with this foodservice experience to provide our clients and our team with a well-rounded, well-versed resource. Chris' willingness to share and to teach are true assets for RDG. Not one to miss out on the action, Chris also leads a significant number of projects for our firm.
